

LARC and the OPA Contraceptive Care Measures

Presented by Mark Hathaway, MD, MPH

Thursday March 16th 2017
3-4pm ET

Register at www.acog.org/LARCwebinars

This webinar will introduce participants to the new contraceptive care measures from the Office of Population Affairs (OPA), approved in fall 2016 by the National Quality Forum (NQF).

Upon completion of the webinar, participants will be able to:

- Describe the four NQF-approved OPA contraceptive care measures
- Detail the two main ways use of these performance measures will increase access to contraception
- Identify at least two tools for use in implementing the contraceptive care measures into clinical care settings

Mark Hathaway, MD, MPH, is a senior technical advisor for the international NGO Jhpiego, focused on international maternal and child health. Dr. Hathaway assists with the Family Planning Programs at Unity Health Care in Washington DC and from 1997 to 2013 he served on the teaching faculty at Medstar Washington Hospital Center.
